A historical tour of Medieval and Renaissance Lyon.

From the church of Saint Paul to that of Saint Georges, Vieux-Lyon extends over 24 hectares along the banks of the Saône. The tour begins with a walk through the narrow cobbled alleyways and famous traboules! These passageways, which lead from one street to the next, reveal superbly renovated architectural treasures: private courtyards, Italian-style galleries, wells, spiral staircases...

Along the way you'll encounter essential monuments such as the Hôtel de Gadagne or La Loge du Change.

Musée Lumière

For cinema-lovers, this is where it all began. The Cinématograph was born rue du Premier-Film, in the heart of Lyon's Monplaisir neighbourhood, where only the factory shed "le Hangar" and the majestic Villa Lumière today remain. The Musée Lumière pays homage to Louis and Auguste Lumière and showcases their finest discoveries in the elegant setting of the family home with its richly crafted ceilings, monumental staircase and winter garden glass roof.

Maison des Canuts

Situated at the heart of the Canuts (silkwormers) district, you are entering a heritage interpretation centre that reveals Lyon's silk industry great adventure: five centuries of social, architectural and technical progress. First region of France in the textile industry and artistic fabrics competitive cluster, Rhône-Alpes deserves an outstanding position in this prestigious past. The Maison des Canuts is proud to display a city-owned collection and hopes you will enjoy your visit following in the footsteps of the finest gold, silver and silk weavers...
